

Confirmed Entertainment at The Somerset

May 3rd – Bank Holiday weekend

Vince Freeman:

It will be a pleasure to welcome back Vince since he was last here on his very successful UK tour. His ability to encompass his audience is excellent and he will entertain you with many of his own material plus covers. He has in the last year supported James Morrison, Paulo Nutini and Newton Faulkner. He has recently been short listed for the Indy Awards 2008, Best Male Solo Artist so let's hope he manages to beat the other three finalists and we can celebrate with him when he plays here. Check out his web site www.myspace.com/vincefreeman

June 28th

Nick Tatham plus support

Nick is a local boy making good. He writes his own material and has a lovely way of delivering his lyrics to his audience. He has supported Vince Freeman here before and it's only right to give him his own stage this time. Check out his credentials on www.myspace.com/nicktatham

July 19th

Brian Paul

Brian is a talented musician who can play a range of instruments. He was classically trained at the Kneller Hall Military School of Music. He has over twenty years experience as an Army musician and has the ability to entertain all ranges of audience with vocal and instrumental tunes.

August 23rd

Cheryl Lee

Cheryl is a popular entertainer with her bubbly presentation of songs from all eras and styles. She will ensure you have a good night out as she involves the audience in her songs – join her on the mic if you're brave enough!!